

Lansing Community Library Meeting Room Use Policy

The Lansing Community Library (LCL) meeting rooms are available during regular library hours on a first-come, first-serve basis, free of charge.

Those wishing to reserve a meeting room should fill out the Meeting Room Use Agreement form and submit it to library staff. On the day of your event, please check in at the front desk.

Library events have priority and the library reserves the right to cancel reservations in favor of library programming with 15 days' notice.

A group or individual may use the room a maximum of 12 times per year and may not exceed 3 consecutive sessions. Requests for additional room use must be approved by the Library Director.

The meeting room may not be used for:

1. Fundraising purposes. ^(a,c)
 2. Programs involving the sale, advertising, or promotion of products or services. ^(b,c)
 3. Organizations charging for attendance.
 4. Partisan political meetings or events such as political rallies and demonstrations, or endorsement of political candidates.
 5. Religious or philosophical/motivational groups that wish to hold services, ceremonies, prayers or events to recruit new members.
 6. Social functions such as showers, birthday parties, etc.
- a) The meeting room may be used for planning and training for fundraising by recognized community service agencies.
 - b) Individuals providing library programming/presentations may sell their products during/after their presentations (i.e. books/CDs).
 - c) Events sponsored or planned by the Friends of LCL are excluded.

Refreshments may be provided by a group/individual. The meeting room shall be left in a neat, orderly condition.

The library does not assume liability for groups/individuals attending a meeting at the library and is not responsible for supplies, equipment or materials brought to the library.

The Library Director reserves the right to refuse the use of the meeting room whenever such use does not conform to these policies.
