Everyone Wins at the Library Block Party

Written by Dan Veaner
 Friday, 11 August 2006

There was a lot of excitement when the winning raffle ticket was picked. The prize was a 1988 Saab Convertible, Turbo in excellent condition that has been displayed around town all summer. While 200 $50 tickets were available, only 121 had been sold, so the odds had improved. 175 $50 tickets had also been sold for a second raffle with a $2,500 prize. And a third raffle promised 50/50 - half for the winner and half for the Lansing Community Library Center (LCLC).

The winner is... Patricia Quirk

The library is in the final phase of a $350,000 fund raising campaign to expand the library. Last Saturday's "Block Party" was an effort to raise some of the remaining $25,000. If all the
